Executive Summary

It is Christmas time already however, the IEO and ICO market by the end of the third week did not bring gifts to the investors. Regretfully, but the year is ending with terrifying results in the funds raised. Thus, during the past week it was raised only $500k that is low but hopefully not the lowest amount raised so far (it was raised around $42k in November). So, the market still shows some life sings but it is on the edge right now. Thus, there were 151 ongoing projects where 12 were already completed and only one project has raised funds. It is the lowest numbers so far in the weekly statistic.

The projects of the last week have dropped average rating to 3.9. In addition, there is only one project, ELAD Network, that was main hero of the last week and has raised funds. Thanks to this the only project, UK is the only country that has raised funds and is origin for the ELAD Network. At the same time the projects 2local and PointPay obtained the highest ratings of the week, 4.7 respectively. The Satt an Worldopo have broken the 40th week-mark of being leader by the amount of ratings.

To sun up with monthly performance, the December's statistics can be compared to the disaster in the current market conditions. Overall, it was raised slightly more than $7.5M during the last three weeks of the month. It is really the lowest number so far of all the time that is almost ten times lower than the closest previous amount of funds raised ($52M in November). Thus, the investors' prays and hopes should be focused on the last magical week of the year to turn the current situation positively.
